COURSE DESCRIPTION

Advanced Theatre - Technical is an advanced study of drama where students will participate in the areas of directing, scene design, light design, and make-up design. Students will be involved in the production of a musical play. The class is production oriented. Third year drama students are expected to take on a leadership role and have added responsibilities in addition to the public performance activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the course, the student will:

- *Develop and apply skills to communicate ideas through theatrical performances.
- *Select and apply theatrical elements to communicate ideas through the creation of theatre.
- *Develop and apply skills to explain perceptions about and evaluations of theatre and theatrical performance.
- *Develop and apply skills necessary to make connections between theatre and other non-arts disciplines.
- *Develop and apply skills necessary to understand cultural diversity and heritage as they relate to theatre.

COURSE OVERVIEW

The following tasks and materials will be covered with allowances made for the factor of time:

I. Play Production

- A. Make-up
- B. Costume
- C. Construction
- D. Lighting
- E. Sound
- F. Personnel

II. Play Analysis

GRADING

If a student fails to complete a task or fulfill responsibilities satisfactorily and on time, the assigned point values will be lost.

Quality and effort will be significant contributors for establishing whether a student has fulfilled his/her responsibilities to the fullest. When a student is absent from class for any reason other than a school related activity, he/she will lose 20 points.

Students in Drama II/III/IV Technical are required to participate in the 2009 Fall Production currently scheduled for Nov. 18-22. Because of the performances, there will be required student attendance after school and on weekends. If a student is unable to fulfill his/her responsibilities in these areas, the student is encouraged to drop this course. In the case of an unexpected crisis, alternative assignments will be given that can be done on the student's own time.

Each student will compile a technical portfolio for the fall production.

Students will serve as the directors and staff for the middle school production scheduled for January 20-22.

Students must participate in the ad campaign for the fall production. Failure to complete the assignment on time will result in the loss of 200 points.

Students must attend assigned Cappies productions during the semester and submit a written critique on the technical and performance aspects of each production that they attend, and they must submit each play's program or ticket stub. Only Cappies productions will meet this requirement. Failure to attend these two performances will result in the loss of 200 points each.

Students selected to be Cappies Critics must attend Cappies training on the date that it is assigned. This is a requirement to be a critic.

The Cappies, is a program through which high school theatre students are trained as critics, attend shows at other schools, write reviews, and publish those reviews in the local newspaper. At the end of the year, the student critics vote for awards that are presented at a formal Cappies Gala. In July and August, many of the top award honorees from around the U.S. are invited to participate in the Cappies National Theatre, where they perform shows at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Students are expected to use complete sentences, proper grammar, and correct spelling in every written performance.

The following percentages will be used to determine a student's grade:

A	93-100	C	73-76
A-	90-92	C-	70-72
B+	87-89	D+	67-69
B	83-86	D	63-66
B-	80-82	D-	60-62
C+	77-79	F	0-59

MID-QUARTER GRADE CHECKS

(Note to Parents/guardians - Please ask your student for these.)

Grade checks will be sent home approximately every third week of each quarter to inform parents/guardians of their student's progress. Students and their parents/guardians should review and sign the grade check. Each student is responsible for returning the signed grade check to class.

ASSIGNMENTS AND PROJECTS

In this class students will participate in the fall production; I will make the final decision as to who will fulfill specific responsibilities. This whole process is somewhat competitive as is the real world and the world of theatre. Informal interviews may be conducted to determine who is best for a position. I will do my best to assign the best people for each position throughout the course. To some extent, everyone will be involved in the fall production and planning for future productions, but the level and type of involvement will vary. If this type of management is upsetting to you, you should probably look into taking another course.

Required Work Time

Students are required to work a total of 20 hours after school during assigned tech times between the dates of September 21-October 22. The 20 hours must be accurately recorded on each student's own time sheet. Performance dates do not count toward these 20 hours. Production dates are set for November 18-22. In addition to the 20 work hours, students are required to work September 10 (auditions), attend the cast meeting and read through on September 21, and attend all rehearsals beginning on October 26.

In addition to the fall musical, students in Drama II Technical will assist with the middle school production. Students are expected to attend auditions, rehearsals, and performances accumulating 10 hours in assistance outside of class time. Performance dates do not count toward these 10 hours. Those assigned directing and management positions must fulfill all production responsibilities. Note the following dates and times:

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Homework - The student should expect to have activity homework from this class in addition to production work, and rehearsals. This includes a technical portfolio for the fall musical, and following, maintaining, and turning in your completed notebook for your specific responsibilities for each production.

Final - The final will be a significant part of the student's grade. The final will be at least 10% and no more than 25% of the student's grade. The final will be given during the final exam time at the end of the course in accordance with the school district policy.

Late Work - Late work is not acceptable. We will function as a real production team with real deadlines. In the case of an excused absence, alternative assignments will be given that can be done on the student's own time.

In addition the following stipulations are made and every student is expected to abide by them:

1. Students are expected to treat other students and the teacher with respect.
2. The student is expected to get in his/her seat after the bell rings.
3. Students should not use profanity, obscene language, or obscene gestures.
4. Students are not to make remarks deemed suggestive or crude by the teacher.
5. Make-up Work - Students are responsible for obtaining and completing make-up work. Assignments given to the student prior to their absence must be turned in or completed the DAY THE STUDENT RETURNS TO CLASS.
6. Students may have snacks and beverages that have been purchased from the machines at Kickapoo. However, to maintain this opportunity, students must properly and courteously clean up all trash, soda cans, and wrappers. Students who make messes or who cause classroom disruptions with snacks or beverages (i.e. passing drinks or snacks around to others, loudly crumpling a soda can or tossing trash during class) will lose the privilege to have snacks or beverages during class.
7. Students are not to bring food or drinks into the auditorium.
8. Passes are a disruption to the learning process. Permission must be obtained from the teacher if the student needs to leave the classroom for any reason. The teacher will determine if the reason is valid. The teacher will also determine if a student leaves class when requested by a pass from the office or another teacher. Students should never use the bathrooms in the locker rooms during this class. A student caught in a locker room while in my class will be referred to an assistant principal.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

The rules in all Springfield Public Schools regarding electronic devices read as follows:

"The possession of laser pointers and other unsafe electronic items are prohibited in the school building. All other electronic devices, such as, but not limited to, cell phones, pagers, PDA's, head phones, IPODs/MP3 players may be in the student's possession as long as they are not disruptive of the educational process or in violation of site use procedures. The school district will not be responsible for lost or stolen items."

Cellular Phones

Students are not allowed to use or display cell phones during the class time. If they choose to disregard this rule, they will be disciplined according to site scope and sequence.

If a parent has a need to reach a student during the school day, he or she should call the office and we will make every attempt to deliver the message. If parents have a need to call on a student's cell phone to leave a message during the day they are free to do so. However, students cannot check for messages during class time.

If a student is in class or in the hallway during class time and remembers that the cell phone is turned on, the student should approach the teacher and ask permission from the teacher to turn it off. Providing the student has followed the appropriate procedure, the teacher should allow the student to turn off the phone without penalty.

If a student forgets to turn off a cell phone and it rings or vibrates during class, the student should ask the teacher's permission to turn it off. The student may also be subject to the teacher's classroom discipline procedures.

ACADEMIC HONESTY STATEMENT

Academic honesty is expected in all classes at KHS. Cheating will not be tolerated. Violations of academic honesty include, but are not limited to, copying, allowing someone to copy your paper, using cheat sheets, using technology to transmit or receive information with the intent to commit academic dishonesty, not grading correctly, plagiarizing, and self plagiarizing.

Plagiarism is the theft of ideas, writings, or words of another person and passing this information off as one's own. Self plagiarism is completing an original paper for one class assignment, then turning in that same paper to another teacher for another class assignment without permission.

Papers may be checked by the teacher using plagiarism detection software. Any student cheating will be subject to academic and/or disciplinary penalties. Consequences may include: reduction in grade on assignment, repeat assignment, no grade (zero) on assignment or others as deemed appropriate. Academic dishonesty will be reported to a school counselor and a parent will be notified.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

1. Truancy - an elective absence which was not approved in advance by parents or by school officials. Work missed because of a truancy may be completed for credit. Truancy is a violation of state statutes as well as school regulations and may result in suspension or other disciplinary action.

2. Suspension - an absence required by school authorities as disciplinary action for inappropriate student behavior. Work missed because of a suspension may be completed for credit. Students will not be excluded from final examinations because of suspensions. Special arrangements may be necessary.

3. School Activities - students represent their schools in a variety of athletic and academic activities. When a student serves as an authorized representative of his/her school, the student is not considered absent. Students who choose to participate in extra-curricular activities resulting in classes missed are to make up all assignments missed.

4. All other absences - all absences, including those approved in advance by parents or school officials, except those for school sponsored activities, will count against a student's days absent. The student should be careful in the use of absences because excessive absences may affect a student's class participation grade.

5. Make-up Work - Students are responsible for obtaining and completing make-up work. Work missed must be made up the DAY THE STUDENT RETURNS TO CLASS.

6. Class Participation - the semester grade in this class is greatly determined by class participation. Class participation in Drama II includes such factors as attendance, punctuality, student preparation and contributions to the class learning environment and a cooperative attitude. There are some assignments that cannot be made up as they are performance oriented, or are assigned and completed within one class period of time. Students who miss such assignments will need to investigate possible extra credit to fill in those points missed.

TARDY POLICY

I expect students to get in their seats and to be prepared to work when the final bell rings. Students should not be out of their seat and talking to other classmates after the final bell rings. The tardy policy for this class is the same as the school-wide policy. This policy will be strictly enforced.

Assigned seating will be used in this class. Students should find their seats at the conclusion of the tardy bell and remain in their seats during the taking of attendance. If a student is out of his or her assigned seat during attendance, he or she will lose half of their daily participation points (10 points).

ATTENDANCE INCENTIVES

100% Attendance – If a student has 100% attendance in a class for the entire term, 20% will be added to his/her final exam grade

96% Attendance – If a student has 96% attendance in a class for the entire term, 15% will be added to his/her final exam grade

92% Attendance – If a student has 92% attendance in a class for the entire term, 10% will be added to his/her final exam grade.

Dual-enrolled classes: Due to the fact that colleges will not allow extra credit to be added, teachers of dual-enrolled classes will have the option to figure two grades; one for the college and one for the high school transcript. Eighth semester seniors may opt out of any final if they have an “A” in the course prior to the final examinations.

INTERNATIONAL THESPIANS

International Thespians is an honorary group of students who have exemplified themselves to be worthy of the title of THESPIAN. Students chosen to be Thespians are the leaders of the department and help administer the theatre season. Students gain entrance to this international society through work on productions and by competition in acting festivals. Students must be members of DRAMA CLUB. After a student has acquired 10 points through 100 hours of excellent work, the student will be invited for initiateship. After the student works through the initiation process, then Thespian status is awarded at the end of the year. Thespians have a variety of social and theatre activities apart from those offered by the Drama Club.

KHS THEATRE

KHS Theatre holds auditions for all mainstage productions open to any student of Kickapoo High School. Membership in Drama Club or enrollment in a drama class is not required for the fall musical. Students who are Drama Club members and/or drama class members will have first priority on any production staff position available throughout the year.

SEALS OF EXCELLENCE

Seals of Excellence are awarded to those Seniors who meet the following criteria:

1. have a 4.0 grade point average in drama
2. have completed at least Drama I and II
3. have participated in at least 3 theatre productions
4. is a member in good standing in Thespians
